

Hello FIRST NAME!

Did you see the recent viral social media post of a 26-year-old man in Silicon Valley who stood at a roadside exit with a box of papers and a sign that read

Homeless.
Hungry 4 Success.
Take a Resume

He got over 200 job offers!
Good for him!

Though I'm not standing on a highway exit, I can relate to him in several ways. In June, I relocated from Illinois to Georgia to be near my children, and now I'm ready for a job--I just need to find organizations where I can add value!

Who do you know in the Atlanta/ Birmingham areas who might need assistance—project, contract, part-time, full-time...?

I've got a lot of hustle, knowledge, and I'm not above entry-level tasks or afraid of hard work—though I prefer mental labor over physical these days.

Adding value and helping others are my top priorities, and I'm incredibly flexible on how that looks and in which industry I work.

I have owned a tool and die company, but I'm not looking to be at the top—though I sure would be glad to lighten the load of leadership in any way I can!

Expertise

- Manufacturing operations
- Construction
- Project management (training but not certification)

Now that I've reached my golden years, making a contribution is what matters most to me. I'm planning to stay in the metro/ northwest Atlanta (Marietta) or Birmingham, Alabama areas. Who do you know in around these cities who could use help at their businesses?

I am available immediately! Though I have extensive manufacturing experience, I'm a continuous learner, and I quickly pick up new software and technical skills. Point me to a new industry, and I'm eager to learn!

Availability

- Part-time or full time, contract, temporary, project, remote...
- Consulting
- Volunteer needs

If there is anything I can DO FOR YOU, please let me know!

Need a recommendation, feedback, advice? Please reach out! Helping you would bring me great joy. It has been said that grey hair is the crown of wisdom; I may not have many greys left, but I do have a lot of wisdom to offer from my triumphs as well as my failures!

Now that summer is over and the grandkids are going back to school, I'm ready to get back to work—and I'd be glad for your help making acquaintances.

With gratitude for any introductions, connections, suggestions . . . and remember, I'm glad to help you too!
